Golden Cockerel supports young artists in Orphanage №3 of St. Petersburg, Russia. Dedicated to helping Russians help themselves, Golden Cockerel arranges for professional artists to teach the children the traditional Russian folk art of painting brooches. We return 100% of revenue from the "sale" of the pins to the kids in the form of new clothes, paid medical bills, and pocket cash. Let us know if you'd like to help us distribute this orphan art in your community. These "feel good" gifts are guaranteed to bring smiles across the miles. Please note that the children choose their own subjects and every brooch is unique.
